CHRS Training has been working as a pioneer institute for various kinds of training programs aiming at the capacity building and professional development of the bar and law enforcement agencies and the corporate sector.

CHRS Training has already conducted a number of courses, trainings, workshops and seminars on different subject areas with a practical approach for professional development of mid to senior level management in almost all professional sectors. Our programs have benefited many of our legal consultants, civil servants, labour relations and personnel officers, managers and trade union officials, industrial relations professionals, human resource officers, government officials, in-house lawyers, company secretaries and leaders of the labour to take on the challenging career in labour administration.

In pursuance of our human development spirit for our nation we are announcing this course for today's demanding issue relating to employment and labours.

OBJECTIVES

The program is aimed at providing practical-oriented training in labour law to people in the legal profession, the business world, trade unions and the public sector. This course intends to expose the participants to the theory and practice of Labour Administration in Pakistan.

Lectures are spread over the course of four months and are presented by academics and legal practitioners.

The program will incorporate the law as it is regulated in the prevailing Labour Laws and Regulations in Pakistan.
