

Training on Mobile Repairing

Duration
4 Weeks

Course Objectives

The main objective of this course is to make participants able to assemble disassemble service & checking components of mobile Phones PCB (printed circuit board) with using proper tools. The course aims to make participants able to diagnose & repair any kind of mobile phones software & hardware faults can easily read mobile phone block & layout diagrams diagnose problems and repair it by using proper tips and techniques.

Targeted Audience

Anyone can join this course; particularly young people with less experience and basic qualification, as it can be attractive service options for them.

Expected Outcomes

On the successful completion of this course the student can join as a customer support executive in any existing mobile service center or repairing center or establish their own business of mobile phones.

Course Content

- Introduction to Mobile Technologies (theory practical)
- Mobile phone communication system
- Mobile repairing tools
- Mobile phone hardware (theory practical)
- Basic electronics in all mobile phones (theory practical)
- Rx & TX voice bands in mobile phones (theory practical)
- Base band module mobile phones data processing system (theory practical)
- Mobile phones assembling de-assembling
- Soldering re-soldering (practical)
- Hardware faults & troubles shooting (theory practical)
- Software installations & troubles shooting (theory practical)

Contact us Complete Human Resource Solutions (CHRS)
Office # 17, 2nd Floor, Twin City Plaza, I-8 Markaz
Islamabd, Pakistan.
Tel: +92-51 4938310
Website: www.chrs.pk | Email: info@chrs.pk